Right to Apply for Relief on Grounds of Unforeseen Hardship

Right to apply for relief

The Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 gives you a right to apply for a change to this Agreement in certain circumstances. These circumstances include if you are reasonably unable to meet your obligations under this Agreement because you are ill, injured, have lost employment, ended a relationship, or any other reasonable cause and you reasonably expect to be able to meet your obligations if the contract were changed in one of the following ways (without any change in annual interest rate):

- (a) the term of this Agreement was extended and the amount of each payment reduced accordingly; or
- (b) the dates on which payments are due are postponed for a specified period; or
- (c) the term of this Agreement was extended and the dates on which payments are due are postponed for a specified period.

The Creditor will then consider your application and may agree to your proposed change.

Any change that you apply for must not be more extensive than is necessary to enable you to reasonably expect to be able to meet your obligations. The change must also be fair and reasonable to both you and the Creditor.

You cannot make an application for a change where:

- (a) you are in default and you:
 - (i) have been in default for 2 weeks or more after receiving a repossession warning notice under the CCCFA or a notice under section 119 of the Property Law Act 2007; or
 - (ii) have failed to make 4 or more consecutive periodic payments by or on the due dates; or
 - (iii) have been in default for 2 months or more, unless you have remedied the default; or
- (b) it was reasonably foreseeable to you, at the time this Agreement was made, that you would be unlikely to be able to meet your obligations under the Agreement because of the illness, the injury, the loss of employment, the end of the relationship, or the other reasonable cause; or
- (c) you have made a previous application less than 4 months ago unless the reasons for the new application are materially different from the reasons for the previous application or the Creditor agrees to consider the application.

How to apply for relief

An application for a change must:

- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) be given to the Creditor; and
- specify the reasonable cause (for example, illness, injury, loss of employment, or the end of a relationship) for your inability to meet your obligations under this Agreement.
