The Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 gives you a right for a short time after the terms of this contract have

Statement of right to cancel been disclosed to you to cancel the contract.

Right to Cancel:

How to cancel

If you want to cancel this contract you must give written notice to the Creditor. You must also:

- return to the Creditor any advance and any other property received by you under the contract (but you cannot do this if you have taken possession of any Goods or if you bought any property at an auction or if the contract is for the sale of services that have been performed); or
- pay the cash price of the property or services within 15 working days of the day you give notice.

Time limits for cancellation

If the disclosure documents are handed to you directly you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 5 working days after you receive the documents.

If the disclosure documents are sent to you by electronic means (for example, email) you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 7 working days after the electronic communication is sent.

If the documents are mailed to you, you must give the notice within 9 working days after they were posted. Saturdays, Sundays, and national public holidays are not counted as working days.

What you may have to pay if you cancel

If you cancel the contract the Creditor can charge you:

- (a) the amount of any reasonable expenses the Creditor had to pay in connection with the contract and its cancellation (including legal fees and fees for credit reports, etc); and
- interest for the period from the day you received the property or services until the day you either pay the cash price for the property or services or return the property to the Creditor

This statement only contains a summary of your rights and obligations in connection with the right to cancel. If there is anything about your rights or obligations under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 that you do not understand, if there is a dispute about your rights, or if you think that the Creditor is being unreasonable in any way, you should seek legal advice immediately.

Right to Apply for Relief on Grounds of Unforeseen Hardship

Right to apply for relief

The Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 gives you a right to apply for a change to this Agreement in certain circumstances. These circumstances include if you are reasonably unable to meet your obligations under this Agreement because you are ill, injured, have lost employment, ended a relationship, or any other reasonable cause and you reasonably expect to be able to meet your obligations if the contract were changed in one of the following ways (without any change in annual interest rate):

- (a) the term of this Agreement was extended and the amount of each payment reduced accordingly; or
- (b)
- the dates on which payments are due are postponed for a specified period; or the term of this Agreement was extended and the dates on which payments are due are postponed for a specified period. (c)

The Creditor will then consider your application and may agree to your proposed change.

Any change that you apply for must not be more extensive than is necessary to enable you to reasonably expect to be able to meet your obligations. The change must also be fair and reasonable to both you and the Creditor.

You cannot make an application for a change where:

- (a) you are in default and you:
 - (i) have been in default for 2 weeks or more after receiving a repossession warning notice under the CCCFA or a notice under section 119 of the Property Law Act 2007; or

 (ii) have failed to make 4 or more consecutive periodic payments by or on the due dates; or

 (iii) have been in default for 2 months or more,

unless you have remedied the default; or

- (b) it was reasonably foreseeable to you, at the time this Agreement was made, that you would be unlikely to be able to meet your obligations under the Agreement because of the illness, the injury, the loss of employment, the end of the relationship, or the other reasonable cause;
- you have made a previous application less than 4 months ago unless the reasons for the new application are materially different from the reasons for the previous application or the Creditor agrees to consider the application.

How to apply for relief

An application for a change must:

- (a) be in writing;
- be given to the Creditor, and
- specify the reasonable cause (for example, illness, injury, loss of employment, or the end of a relationship) for your inability to meet your obligations under this Agreement. (c)
